Having considered the aforementioned complaint, introduced pursuant to Council Joint Action 2008/124/CFSP of 4 February 2008, the EULEX Accountability Concept of 29 October 2009 on the establishment of the Human Rights Review Panel and the Rules of Procedure of the Panel as last amended on 15 January 2013,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

I. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE PANEL

1. The complaint was registered on 20 March 2014.

II. THE FACTS

2. The facts, as submitted by the complainant, can be summarised as follows.
3. On 12 December 2013, the complainant received a decision from the German Pension Insurance (“Deutsche Rentenversicherung Bayern Sued”) denying the reimbursement of the complainant’s contributions to the German Pension scheme for the period from 18 September 1995 to 30 November 2001.
4. On 30 January 2014, the Social Court of Landshut dismissed the complainant’s claim against the German Pension Insurance as unsubstantiated.

III. COMPLAINTS

5. The complainant makes a general reference to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and requests to have his pension contributions to the German pension scheme reimbursed.

IV. THE LAW

6. As a matter of substantive law, the Panel is empowered to apply human rights instruments as reflected in the EULEX Accountability Concept of 29 October 2009 on the establishment of the Human Rights Review Panel. Of particular importance to the work of the Panel are the European Convention on the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights which set out minimum standards for the protection of human rights which must be guaranteed by public authorities in all democratic legal systems.
7. Before considering the complaint on its merits the Panel has to decide whether to accept the complaint, taking into account the admissibility criteria as formulated in the Accountability Concept mentioned above and set out in Rule 29 of the Panel’s Rules of Procedure.
8. According to Rule 25, paragraph 1, of the Rules of Procedure the Panel can examine complaints relating to human rights violations committed by EULEX Kosovo in the conduct of its executive mandate in the justice, police and customs sectors.
9. The Panel notes that the complainant’s grievance pertains to insurance periods under the German pension scheme. It has not been shown that EULEX was involved in any capacity in this matter.

10. It follows that the present complaint falls outside the ambit of the executive mandate of EULEX Kosovo and, consequently, outside of the competence of the Panel, as formulated in Rule 25 of its Rules of Procedure and the OPLAN of EULEX Kosovo (see Gashi against EULEX, 2013-20, 26 November 2013, at par. 9 and U. against EULEX, 2013-19, 27 November 2013 at par. 14-15).

FOR THESE REASONS,

The Panel, unanimously, holds that it lacks competence to examine the complaint, finds the complaint manifestly ill-founded within the meaning of Article 29 (e) of its Rules of Procedure, and

DECLARES THE COMPLAINT INADMISSIBLE.

For the Panel,

John J. RYAN
Senior Legal Officer
